HB 3153 - SB 2984

February 13, 2012

SUMMARY OF BILL: Removes the Wildlife Resources Commission's authority to regulate the hunting of wild hogs on private property. For this act to be promulgated within a county, the county's legislative body must approve this act by two-thirds vote.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- There is not currently a license to hunt wild hogs.
- Removing the authority of the Commission to regulate the hunting of wild hogs on private property will not result in a significant decrease in the number of licenses issued or in the amount of fee revenue collected from the issuance of such licenses. As a result, any fiscal impact is considered not significant.
